Taken as a whole, there are approximately nine hospital beds per 1,000 persons in Rumania.

As stated above with the exception of Bucharest where there are approximately 5 beds per 1,000 persons.

The largest hospitals in Bucharest are:

1. Colentina - very well equipped, with 2,000 beds
2. Central - about 1,100 beds
3. Brancovenesc - about 600 beds
4. Spital Filantropia - a cancer hospital, with about 600 beds
5. Spital Central Militar (Central Military Hospital) - for military personnel only, about 600 beds

6. Floreasca
7. Ilie Pintilie
8. Spital de Copii - children's hospital
9. Bucur
10. O.R.L. - ears, nose and throat hospital
11. C.C.P.M.R. - formerly the Elias Hospital, it is now the hospital of the Central Committee of the Rumanian Communist Party and is for party members only - about 300 beds.
12. Spital Minister Finante - hospital of the Ministry of Finance, but other patients also admitted.
13. C.F.R. (Calea Ferata Romana) No. 1) Rumanian Railways Hospital No. 2) for railway employees only
14. M.A.I. (Minister Afacerilor Interne) - hospital of the Ministry of Internal Affairs - for their employees only.
15. Giulesti
16. Tei, Emilia Harsu
17. Panduri.

With the exception of Tei, Emilia Harsu, which has been built since the war, all the above hospitals existed before World War II. They have all been nationalized and many of them are now known officially by numbers, such as 'State Hospital No. 1'. Most persons, however, continue to refer to them by their old names.

Provinces

Each center of a region and most centers of districts in Rumania have a hospital. Particularly good and well-supervised hospitals are to be found in the industrial areas, along the Yugoslav frontier and in the larger towns. [REDACTED] the following are the most important of this category.

Large Towns

Iasi - Three hospitals: Spiridoniei (No. 1), Parhon (built since 1945), and Maternitate (maternity hospital);

Constanta - Three hospitals: Spital No. 1, Spital 'port', Spital Maternitate

Pitesti - One hospital, known as No. 1 - about 600 beds

Industrial areas

Plœsti (oil) - Two hospitals, known as No. 1 and No. 2
 Reșita (steel) - An excellent, new hospital - about 300 beds
 Petrosani (coal) - A new hospital
 Comanesti (oil and coal) - A new hospital
 Baia Mare (chemical) - A new hospital

Yugoslav Frontier area

Timisoara - 'Several' hospitals
 Turnu Severin - One large new, and one small old hospital
 Orsova, Oravita, Vangiu Mare, Kujmir, Sannicolaul-Mare - One hospital in each place.

Particular attention has also been paid to hospitals in the area where the Danube/Black Sea Canal is under construction. At Megedia and Cernavoda the existing hospitals have been enlarged and are equipped with 120 and 80 beds respectively. At Porta Alba a new hospital with 150 beds has been built.
